Tutoring Experience

I've spent the past decade working with students across various international curriculums, focusing on IB, A-Level, and IGCSE English. My teaching experience spans different countries, including Finland, the UK, and Singapore. I've helped students improve their analytical skills and gain a deeper appreciation for literature and language.

Throughout my career, I've worked with students on diverse topics such as poetry analysis, essay writing, and textual interpretation. Many of my students have achieved excellent results in their exams, successfully applying to top universities around the world. My goal is to help students build strong foundations in English, preparing them for future academic challenges.
